

Board of Directors

Do You Have Passion To Make A Difference? Join Our Board.

Position Title: Board Director

Organization: Babies of Homelessness (BoH)

Location: Eastside (Meetings held every other month on the third Tuesday from 5-7 PM; in-person attendance)

Overview:

We are inviting passionate and committed individuals to apply for an open Board Director position at Babies of Homelessness. This opportunity comes at a critical time as we continue our mission to make a positive impact in the lives of housing insecure low-income families with young children.

Role & Responsibilities:

As a Board Director at Babies of Homelessness, your leadership, expertise, and dedication will be integral to our ongoing success and growth. Board members are expected to uphold the organization's values, ensuring that we effectively address the needs of our community while sustaining the mission of BoH.

Apply Online

Volunteering as a board member is a rewarding opportunity to make a direct impact on your community. By lending your expertise and time, you'll connect with like-minded individuals, enhance your leadership skills, and know your efforts are creating lasting, positive change. Join us in making a difference—your voice matters!

Key responsibilities include:

Time Commitment:

Board members are required to attend at least 90% of all board meetings, committee meetings, and special events. Our board meetings take place every other month on the third Tuesday from 5-7 PM on the Eastside, with in-person attendance preferred. We also hold an annual retreat to review strategic goals, and committee meetings are scheduled as needed by committee chairs. In addition to meeting attendance, board members are expected to dedicate at least 5 hours each month to support our initiatives. This time commitment includes attending meetings, responding to emails, voting on key decisions, participating in committee work, conducting research, attending training sessions, and supporting events.

Leadership:

You are a proven leader in team settings and have experience serving on other boards. Board members may be asked to lead a committee, and your project management and organizational skills will be crucial in getting results and driving the initiatives of the organization forward. We seek individuals who are capable of managing multiple tasks, motivating teams, and delivering outcomes aligned with the organization's strategic goals.

Fiduciary Responsibility:

Board members are expected to review and understand the organization's bylaws, as well as the fiduciary duties of care, obedience, and loyalty associated with the role. Active engagement in the oversight of the organization's financial health and strategic direction is key to ensuring its success.

Advocacy & Networking:

Board members will advocate for BoH's mission within their communities and leverage their networks to support the organization's fundraising and development efforts.

Financial Oversight:

Board members play a critical role in ensuring the financial stability of our organization. You will be tasked with reviewing financial reports, making informed decisions on funding and resource allocation, and contributing to long-term financial planning.

Fundraising & Giving:

Board members are expected to participate in fundraising activities and submit a personal financial giving plan each year. While there is no set minimum contribution required, 100% participation in giving is essential to the organization's sustainability.

Collaboration & Decision-Making:

As a Board Director, you will work closely with staff and fellow directors to make key decisions, support the Executive Director, and provide strategic insights to help guide the organization towards its future goals.

Term Limit:

Board Directors serve a term of five years.

If you are excited about the opportunity to make a lasting difference and have the time and commitment to serve as a Board Director, we encourage you to apply for this important leadership role. Your contributions will help us continue making a profound impact on the lives of those we serve. We look forward to hearing from you!